Dear Russell:

Many thanks for your letter of May 16. I was glad to get the report about the affairs of the Council, David Rockefeller's election, and George Franklin's designation as Assistant Executive Director. I am very glad you wrote to Paul Hoffman and I hope that the Ford Fund will do something for us.

I get up to Long Island quite regularly for week-ends and would like very much to sit down with you some Saturday or Sunday for a good talk.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
